Disability

To help you decide whether you have disability as defined under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 please read the following information:

A disability is defined as 'a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'

The effect an impairment may have on day-to-day activities is defined in the Act as falling within the following categories:

1. mobility
2. manual dexterity
3. physical co-ordination
4. continence
5. ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects
6. speech, hearing or eyesight
7. memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand
8. perception of the risk of physical danger

The impairment has to be substantial, that is something more than trivial and it needs to be long-term, i.e. has lasted or is likely to last in total for at least twelve months or is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person affected. Having considered the above information please tick one of the following:

- I do consider myself to have a disability
- I do not consider myself to have a disability
- I decline to self classify as to whether I consider I have a disability
